

The new Häfele catalogue 2021 presents Topco services Take advantage of it online now

The new Complete Häfele will be sent to all business partners in January 2021. You can now take a sneak peek at the chapter with the innovative Topco services at www.haefele.de, using the search term Topco.

With Topco products and services made to measure, carpenters, joiners, and interior fitters can secure their lead on the market, thanks to ready-made components for direct installation in furniture and furnishings with a minimum quantity of 1.

The highlights in the Topco range are the complete drawers from Häfele that match any customer requirement. They are fully pre-assembled – drawer sides, bottom, rear wall – everything included. This saves time, money, and resources. Häfele configuration tools make online ordering easier around the clock.

Here are the other highlights in detail:

Häfele Matrix Box P: For the highest of comfort and equipment demands. As a smart alternative for kitchen and living room furniture, the double-walled drawer side system with its five different colours combines perfect performance with maximum variety. This gives freedom in design and application.

Häfele Matrix Pro Medical made of steel, with its inserts and the low panel heights that are particularly popular in laboratories and medical practices, is the perfect choice for the medical sector.

The brand new Häfele TA'OR Box for the demands for living, lifestyle, and design for today.

Further complete drawers are the straightforward and sleek Blum Legrabox, the Blum Tandem Box antaro – the classic for kitchens – and Häfele drawers made of solid, dovetailed wood and convenient MDF board material.
